

Copyright Licence

U3A Network – Queensland Inc. has an umbrella Copyright agreement with the “Copyright Agency Limited” covering those individual U3As that have opted to be included.

The Certificate issued states that the copying of copyright works by educational institutions is permitted under Part VB of the Copyright Act provided statutory conditions are met.

Our Licence Number is 6878.

The Statutory Education Licence allows educational institutions to:

Photocopy and fax content

Print, scan, download and email content for distribution to students

Store and display copyright material on your educational organisation’s intranet

Share content in course materials

How much content can you use? The Copyright Act states a “reasonable portion”

The Copyright Agency Limited recommends:

10% of a book or one chapter (whichever is greater)

10% of sheet music

An article contained in any issue of a periodical publication (ie newspaper/journal)

Two or more articles contained in any issue of a periodical provided they relate to the same subject matter

A play, script, short story, text or poem in an anthology if that work comprises not more than 15 pages of that anthology

An image, map or illustration if it accompanies text for the purpose of explaining or illustrating the text and it is not published separately

A book, text, image, play or piece of sheet music if a new copy of that work cannot be obtained commercially within a reasonable period of time
